Head south from Zurich on the A3 motorway in the direction of Chur for about 60 miles.

Continue south towards Chur on the A13/E43 for a further 13 miles.

Follow signs for Chur-Nord, Zentrum, Arosa.

Begin the climb up to Arosa and continue for a little over 18 miles.

When you reach the town on Arosa you will see a lake on your right. Continue along the road keeping the lake on your right hand side and follow around until you pass the train station.

When you pass the end of the tracks take a left and continue up the hill.

After a few hundred yards you will see the Wald Hotel on your left, take a right at this junction for 100 yards and then second (sharp) left to the Mountain Lodge. From the railway station onwards you will almost certainly need snow chains, fit them before you get stuck in the snow !
