Geneva To Gold Test Centre, Torgon

The train station at Geneva airport is only a few minutes from the arrivals hall.

Tickets can be bought in advance from the Swiss National Tourist Office or from the machine at the station or from the conductor on the train itself.

The nearest rail station to Torgon is Aigle. The train journey from Geneva takes about 1 hour and costs about Sfr60 (£25) for an adult return.

From Aigle a regular bus service takes you to Torgon.

The bus leaves from outside the train station and you will need to head to in Torgon, La Jorrette.

Please note that the buses stop running by 7pm and a taxi to Torgon from Aigle is about £30.

When the bus stops in the main square, continue on foot.

The road to the Gold Test Centre runs along the bottom of the ski slope and our driveway begins by the draglift on the far side.

Bear left and down the driveway to the Gold Test Centre.

Any problems please call Gold Test Centre on 024 481 5555 or Gerry on 079 706 1828.
